The Independent Learning Centre

Language Centre of the Universities in Bremen

Dr. Anikó Brandt, coordinator
Independent Learning Centre, 2017
Centres at three universities (Bremen University, University of Applied Sciences Bremen and University of Applied Sciences Bremerhaven)

autonomous language learning → important component in the learning process centres founded between 2001 and 2004 as computer labs with access to special software for language learning and advisory service/library

2007/2008 implementation of the tutoring programme

new developments need new concepts

Dr. Anikó Brandt, coordinator
Independent Learning Centre, 2017
Independent Learning Centre – aims and services

- Promoting and supporting learner autonomy
  - advisory services
  - placement
  - skills oriented support & services
  - promoting strategic knowledge for (language) learning
  - provision of language learning resources – analog & digital
  - combining of autonomous learning and learning in formal settings (courses)

- Providing a space for learning

- Information desk for the language centre

Dr. Anikó Brandt, coordinator
Independent Learning Centre, 2017