

3rd Bremen Student Conference in English Linguistics

Monday, July 25th, 2022, 9:00 a.m. – 4:30 p.m., Cartesium and SFG

The Bremen Student Conference offers students at the University of Bremen the opportunity to present their research to the public and discuss their research projects with peers and experts. Presentations cover a range of research topics related to the way language is used in the English-speaking world.

Plenary Speaker: Dr. Tobias Bernaisch
(Justus Liebig University Giessen)
“Genderlectal variation in the pragmatics of South Asian Englishes”

Cartesium, 9:15 a.m. – 10:15 a.m.

Invited Workshop: Elena Mattei
(Università di Verona)
“How to perform systematic manual tagging of visual artifacts: An interactive, data-driven workshop for the understanding and measurement of contemporary meaning-making practices”

SFG, 12:35 p.m. – 13:20 a.m.

For more details visit
<https://blogs.uni-bremen.de/bscel/>

Follow us on Twitter and Instagram
@bscel2022 #bscel2022

