

Information for Applicants for the Master's Program "International Studies in Aquatic Tropical Ecology (ISATEC)"

Please note that the information contained herein is intended only as a general orientation for applicants. Applications and admission to the Master program is subject solely to the regulations governing admission to the respective degree course. These regulations can be accessed under www.uni-bremen.de/master. For legal reasons, the regulations governing admissions are only available in the German language.

General Information:

Official commencement of studies: 1st October

Language of delivery: English

Deadline for receipt of applications: The closing date for applications is 30th April (The deadline for DAAD scholarship applicants is different. Please consult <http://www.isatec.uni-bremen.de/en/isatec>)

Before submitting your application, please consult the homepage of the respective department and study the information on your chosen field of study:

<http://www.isatec.uni-bremen.de/en/isatec>

Application procedure:

Applications must be submitted online, prior to the closing date and together with all necessary admission requirements (see below).

For online applications for Master's programs at the University of Bremen go to:

<https://movein-uni-bremen.moveonnet.eu/movein/portal/studyportal.php? language=en>.

Once your application has been submitted online, it is not necessary to submit any paper documents to the University of Bremen. You will only be requested to submit paper documents if your application is successful. In this case you will be sent a Confirmation of Enrollment together with a request to submit (either by surface mail or by hand) any further paper documents that may be necessary.

Admission requirements:

- Evidence of having obtained a prior academic degree (e. g. a Bachelor degree with 180 ECTS or equivalent) in a subject related to Biology- or Environmental Sciences, or another degree in a field of study recognised as equivalent. In the event that you may not have qualified for a first degree before the closing date for applications, you may still submit your application: In this case, you must provide evidence that you have already obtained a minimum of 135 ECTS (or equivalent).
- Competence in the English language at a level of C1 according to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages. This does not apply to applicants who obtained their university entrance qualification or prior academic degree in the English language.
- A Letter of Motivation stating why you have chosen this particular program.
- Curriculum vitae in tabular form.

The following documents may be submitted at a later date:

In the event your application is successful, documentary evidence of language competence in accordance with the admission requirements listed above and evidence of having acquired a prior academic degree may be submitted up to two weeks before the official commencement of studies. The precise deadline will be notified in the Confirmation of Enrollment.

The Degree Certificate evidencing prior academic studies may be submitted up to 31st December.

Translations and authentication:

Only official authentication issued by a German public body can be accepted. All translations must be certified by an officially certified translation agency in Germany or an EU member state or a German consulate.

Award of study places:

The number of study places available may be restricted from year to year: restricted admission. All Master programs with restricted admission in force are marked "Z" in the Master Portal www.uni-bremen.de/en/master.

In the absence of "Z", all applicants who fulfill the Admission Requirements can be admitted to studies and are considered to be suitably qualified by the selection board of the respective field of study.

Admission procedure "ISATEC":

In the event of restricted admission, the selection board will create a shortlist according to the following criteria and respective weightings. Up to 100 points may be awarded:

- Up to 40 points: Either overall grade of previous degree, or average grade achieved up to time of application (min. 135 CP). The points are allocated in accordance with a ranking list of applicants drawn up on the basis of their grades. The applicant with the best overall grade will be awarded 40 points. The candidates with subsequent positions in the ranking will each be awarded a correspondingly lower number of points; there are no points for the applicant with the lowest overall grade.
- Up to 40 points: Related subjects dealing with aquatic ecology studied on previous degree course and/or related professional or other experience.
- Up to 20 points: Letter of Motivation (reasons for interest in the Master's program). The assessment criteria are specific reference to the program "ISATEC", clear presentation of personal qualifications and goals, in particular in respect of connection between choice of program and career expectations, as well as congruence of motivation with the program focus.

Further information in respect of application procedure, language competence, authentication, ECTS, "Semesterbeitrag" and more can be accessed under <http://www.uni-bremen.de/en/masterportal/fags.html>.
