Lecture: Public International Law

Prof. Dr. Pia Lange, LL.M. (UCT)

Subject

The lecture provides an introduction to public international law with regard to classical and current decisions of international and national courts as well as dispute resolution bodies. On the one hand, it presents the development of public international law in its historical, philosophical and political context. On the other hand, it offers a structured overview of the essential fields of public international law. In particular, it deals with the subjects of international law, the sources of international law, the basic principles of international law, peacekeeping law, human rights, international humanitarian law, international criminal law, international economic law and international environmental law.
