PUBLICATIONS AND PRESENTATIONS

Publications – work in progress
Fritsch, M., Kudic, M.: ‘Explaining the co-existence of macro stability and micro fluidity of inventor networks – Evidence from German Laser Technology Inventor Networks since 1960s’

Kudic, M., Skolnykova, M.: ‘The geographical and technological roots of German bioeconomy – using patent citation and network analysis methods for tracing the evolution from biotech to bioeconomy’

Skolnykova, M., Kudic, M.: ‘Who benefits from radical innovations of SMEs in a region?’

Publications – under review

Publications in peer-reviewed journals

Monograph

Publications in edited volumes

Further publications

Conference presentations (peer-reviewed)

Kudic, M. (2013): ‘The structure and dynamics of innovation networks in the plant-based Bioeconomy - a research agenda’. The International Bioeconomy Conference - From molecule to society, 6 - 7 June 2013, Halle (Saale), Germany.

Kudic, M., Bönisch, P., Domínguez-Lacasa, I. (2010): ‘Network embeddedness, geographical co-location or both?’ The International IWH Conference - Which regions benefit from emerging new industries?, 30 - 1 October 2010, Halle (Saale), Germany.

