Beschreibung: TRAINEESHIP
The University of Zaragoza's German Department is looking for a German native speaker trainee. This traineeship is an ideal opportunity for those scholars part of an Erasmus or Leonardo placement, who wants to acquire job experience or skills in the field of education.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES
This traineeship will concentrate in assisting the German Department in preparing and lecturing German as a foreign language. In this context, and under the Lecturer's supervision, the trainee will be expected to assist mainly in developing:
- speaking skills of students
- knowledge of his or her country's culture and civilization issues
Moreover, the trainee will be expected to develop a monitoring plan and to regularly evaluate her or his own work, under the supervision and guidance of a mentor.

IMPORTANT NOTICE
The traineeship is considered voluntary work and does not include financial support of any kind for the trainee. However, the trainee will receive contributions in kind for her or his work, like for example, the possibility to attend other language courses within the Language Centre (Arabic, Chinese, English, French, Greek, Italian, Japanese, Portuguese or Russian) or Spanish courses at the University of Zaragoza. During the time of placement, the trainee is expected to be enrolled as a scholar in the Erasmus Programme. The trainee is expected to make her or his own travel and stay arrangements (health insurance, lodging, etc.). On completion of the traineeship the University of Zaragoza will issue a traineeship certificate.

Anforderungen:
- Graduate or undergraduate student in her or his last year
- Erasmus or Leonardo Programme scholar
- German native speaker (living in a German speaking country for the last two years)
- Knowledge of Spanish will be considered an advantage

Stipendium: Mögliche Förderung über ERASMUS-Stipendien für Auslandspraktika.
