

UNLEARN THE IVORY TOWER: Decolonizing Minds, Challenging Racism and Sexism in Academia

From November 2024 to April 2025, a series of events will address oppression, racism and sexism in academia.

They are intended for women, trans, inter and non-binary researchers, as well as those in science management or with a general interest.

LECTURES

December 6, 2024 / 10:00 to 12:00 / Online
Unpacking Racism in German Universities: A Path Toward Change with Dr. Rahab Njeri

December 12, 2024 / 13:30 to 15:00 / Online
Understanding coloniality and oppression with Josephine Apraku

February 19, 2025 / 10:00 to 15:00 / On-site Sexism in Academia with Carmen Alicia Laínez Jaén

WORKSHOPS

February 13, 2025 / 10:00 to 15:00 / On-site
Confronting racism strategically
with Josephine Apraku

March 14, 2025 / 09:00 to 16:00 / On-site
Decolonising the Mind – Empowerment Workshop for BIPOC Academics with Dr. Rahab Njeri

April 3, 2025 / 09:00 to 16:00 / On-site Compassion Training for Researchers Leading and Working in Academia with Dr. Phuong Glaser

Join the OPEN SPACE for Black Indigenous People of Color (BIPOC)
@ University of Bremen

DATES: November 27 & December 9, 2024
February 26 & March 6, 2025

TIME: 12:00 to 13:30 / UNICOM 2, Haus Oxford

A space to network, connect and exchange with other BIPOC persons studying and working at University of Bremen. Group moderated by Carmen Alicia Laínez Jaén.

More Information and Registration at: www.uni-bremen.de/big-events

