Registration required

What are my plans after graduation and is a doctorate something for me?

Many international graduate women play with the idea of starting a PhD after their master's degree in Germany, but are unsure how to proceed.

If you feel addressed, this workshop is for you! It will provide guidance, support and practical information to help you navigate the start of your PhD journey.

It will offer:

- Orientation and the first steps towards a doctorate
- Information on funding opportunities and related academic paths
- Practical information on the structures and processes at University of Bremen
- Networking opportunity with other international graduate women

Childcare onsite or refund of expenses for childcare is possible on demand. Kindly contact us at perspektive.promotion@uni-bremen.de by September 18, 2023.

Attention: The babysitter cannot be a member of the family!
