

university of bremen 30 Sept.–01 Oct. 2021

ADDRESSING (AND) INEQUALITY

approaches to subjectivation in educational science and beyond

international conference languages

German/English | translation

host

Prof. Nadine Rose
Educational Science/Philosophy of Education

registration & contact

<https://www.uni-bremen.de/addressing-inequality> thursday

- 9 am Pre-Conference (Workshops by/for PhD Students)
- 1.30 pm Opening & Keynote Prof. Deborah Youdell (Birmingham/UK)
The Relevance of Butler's Analysis for Education
- 3.30 pm Prof. Norbert Ricken
Addressing and Recognition
- 4.45 pm Prof. Paul Mecheril
What can we know? What do we want to convey? 'Race' as a blank space in German-speaking Educational Science

friday

- 9 am Dr. Saša Bosančić
Empirical Subjectivation Research between Poststructuralist and Interpretive Approaches
- 10.15 am Prof. Kerstin Jergus & Prof. Christiane Thompson Authorisation and Subjectivation
- 11.30 am Prof. Bettina Kleiner
The Colonial (Heterosexual) Matrix. Post- and decolonial feminist inquiries on Judith Butler's theory of subjectivation
- 1.30 pm Prof. Antje Langer & Prof. Daniel Wrana Researching Subjectivation. Social conditions, reification and critic(s)
- 2.45 pm Prof. Lisa Pfahl & Prof. Boris Traue
Determinism and Agency in the Subjectivation Debate. Teachings from Disability Studies
- 4.00 pm Keynote
Prof. Charlotte Chadderton (Bath/UK)
Subjectivation and Desubjectivation in Education. Using Judith Butler's work to understand race inequality
- 5.30 pm Commentary (Prof. Hans-Christoph Koller) & Closing