

8. BREMER SYMPOSION ZUM FREMDSPRACHENLEHREN UND -LERNEN AN HOCHSCHULEN

Die Rolle von Sprachenzentren neu denken: Flexibilität, Relevanz & Vision
 Rethinking the Role of Languages Centres: Flexibility, Relevance & Vision

01.03.2023 – 03.03.2023 an der Universität Bremen

Recommendations for cultural activities during the 8th Bremen Symposium

Museums

Focke Museum	Schwachhaus Heerstraße 240, 28213 Bremen	In the Focke Museum you will discover the art and cultural history of Bremen. Consisting of four historic buildings, the modern main building and a special repository, the state museum displays a collection on the city's history and general cultural history, as well as complementary special exhibitions. © Focke Museum	Tues 10- 21:00  Wed- Sat 10- 17:00  Sun 10- 18:00
Übersee Museum	Bahnhofspl. 13, 28195 Bremen	Both young and old globe-trotters and naturalists will be delighted at the Übersee-Museum. Here you will become an explorer, experience the fascination of distant continents and investigate the history of the museum itself. The geographical journey will take you from Oceania to Asia and Africa and on to North and South America, while the chronological journey will start with the era of the founders and then take you all the way to the 1980s. © privat/ JUA	Tues- Fri 9 – 17:00  Sat – Sun 10 – 17:00
Universum Bremen	Wiener Straße 1a, 28359 Bremen	The whale-shaped Universum Bremen near the university is not merely an architectural highlight. Here, knowledge is conveyed interactively and in a hands-on format. The permanent exhibition deals with the topics of human beings, nature and technology, while special exhibitions, science shows, lectures and workshops focus on varying topics. © Universum Bremen	Mon- Fri 9- 18:00  Sat- Sun 10- 18:00

Weserburg	Teerhof 20, 28199 Bremen	The Weserburg, Bremen's museum for modern art, is located in the middle of the Weser on the Teerhof peninsula. In addition to rotating presentations of the renowned collection inventory, the museum stages special exhibitions that continually address the exciting developments in art from the 1960s to the present day. © www.frauenseiten.de/ A. Robers	Tuesday – Sunday 11 – 18:00
Hafenmuseum Speicher XI	Am Speicher XI 1, 28217 Bremen	Port history that you can experience hands-on. In the harbor museum "Speicher XI", you can experience 120 years of Bremen's port history. Small stories paint the "Big Picture" of Bremen's free ports. © Hafenmuseum Speicher XI	Tuesday – Sunday 11 – 18:00

Theater

Theater am Goetheplatz	Goethepl. 1–3, 28203 Bremen	The Theater am Goetheplatz offers seating for 800 people and is thus the largest venue of the Theater Bremen. Centrally located, you can expect rousing operas, exciting dramas or entertaining comedies. © Bremen.online / JUA	Program
Theaterschiff Bremen	Tiefer 104, Anleger 4, 28195 Bremen	On the Theaterschiff Bremen you can enjoy drama in an unique atmosphere. A colorful program of comedies awaits you here. © Eggert Peters	Program
Schnürschuh Theater	Buntentorsteinweg 145, 28201 Bremen	The Schnürschuh Theater was founded in 1976 and has had its own venue in Bremen's Neustadt since 1994. During the day, you can experience theater for children and young people, which is intended to convey tolerance and courage. In the evening program, you can expect modern in-house productions and a variety of guest performances. The productions of the Schnürschuh Theater are touching because of their poetic simplicity and their closeness to the audience. They show that it is often the small things that create narrative and	Program

		dramaturgical depth. © Schnürschuh Theater
Wilde Bühne Bremen	Volkshaus Hans-Böckler-Str. 9 28217 Bremen	The Wilde Bühne focuses on addiction and violence prevention. At its heart is the 14-member ensemble of people suffering from addiction. Characterized by their biographies, the actors are distinctive witnesses and creators of their theater work. The ensemble performs nationwide in schools, youth centers, theaters and at professional events. © Wilde Bühne Bremen e.V.	Program
AMS Theater	Ladestraße 12, 28197 Bremen	The AMS! Theater is a stage for long-form improvisation in Bremen. With inspiration from the audience, unique moments are created that you will never see again. Funny and serious, complex and simple, mundane and clever. Even if you already are familiar with improv theater, the AMS! is different! Here, long-form improv is celebrated in a style all its own, with lots of inspiration from Chicago and New York. © Benjamin Eichler	Program

Cinema

Schauburg Kino	Vor dem Steintor 114, 28203 Bremen	The Schauburg will enchant you with its very special charm. The arthouse movie theater in the Viertel district offers a diverse program and a variety of films in original languages. There are also sneak previews and on the first Wednesday of every month at 8:00 pm a film is shown in Spanish. © privat/ JUA	Program
City 46	Birkenstraße 1, 28195 Bremen	The City 46 is a community cinema and aims to offer you not only a great movie experience, but also a place to gather. The cinema has been committed to film and cinema culture, film history and film education since 1994. Here you will be offered great cinema from all over the world: Silent	Program

		films, accompanied live on the piano; supporting programs for other cultural and educational institutions; stimulating experimental film evenings; conversations with directors and exciting film discoveries by filmmakers who are still unknown. © privat/ JUA
Cinema Ostertor	Ostertorsteinweg 105, 28203 Bremen	The Cinema im Ostertor was founded on November 7, 1969, making it the first arthouse cinema in Germany. Time and again, the cinema in the heart of the Viertel district has received awards for an "outstanding annual film program". To date, the Cinema has received over 45 federal film program awards. © privat/ JUA	Program
Gondel Filmtheater	Schwachhauser Heerstraße 207, 28211 Bremen	The Gondola is located in Schwachhausen. Let yourself be enchanted by the French charm of the small, cozy cinema and be carried away into past decades. In 15 rows of seats you have plenty of legroom facing the almost 50 square meter screen. The cinema technology of the film theater, which opened in 1953, was upgraded to the digital state of the art in 2012. The film program offers sophisticated, mainly European films. © WFB	Program
CinemaxX	Breitenweg 27, 28195 Bremen	With 3053 seats in ten theaters, CinemaxX is the largest movie theater in downtown Bremen. The largest hall offers over 600 seats and has a 200 square meter screen. Here you are also regularly offered original English versions, events related to new film releases and monthly special events. Thanks to its convenient location near the main train station, it is easy to reach from all parts of the city and by public transportation. © WFB-SIS	Program