Travelling to İzmir

Izmir Adnan Menderes Airport (<https://adnanmenderesairport.com/en-EN/>) can be accessed directly by international flights as well as via Istanbul. There are direct international flights (mainly run by SunExpress) from many European cities to Izmir Adnan Menderes Airport.

You can also fly via Istanbul. There are frequent flights on a daily basis from Istanbul Airport and Istanbul Sabiha Gökçen Airport to Izmir. If you come to Izmir via Istanbul, please be aware that Izmir Adnan Menderes Airport as an international airport has customs. Thus, upon your arrival in Istanbul, you transfer to the domestic terminal going through passport control in Istanbul but claim your luggage from the international terminal in Izmir (you are directed by the airline personnel upon your arrival to the domestic terminal).

Izmir Adnan Menderes Airport is 15 kilometers from the city center (Alsancak). This distance will take approximately 23 minutes by car. You can transfer to the city

(<https://adnanmenderesairport.com/en-EN/passenger-guide/to-from-the-airport>) by shuttle bus (HAVAŞ), subway (İZBAN) or taxi (some taxis accept credit cards).

Havaş Timetable (<https://havas.net/en/bus-services>):

Accommodation

The main meeting point will be Dokuz Eylul University Rectorate (Cumhuriyet Blv. No:144 Alsancak, Konak, Türkiye) which is situated in Alsancak where many hotels are located.

All participants are responsible for making their own hotel reservations. Please book your room(s) as soon as possible as May is the beginning of the “high season” in İzmir.
