Practical Information

Study Visa Exception: Registration according to the REST-Guideline	Non-EU nationals have to apply for a study visa at the nearest German Embassy or Consulate before entering Germany. Invitation Letters and Letters of Acceptance for the visa application are issued upon receipt of the scan of the signed application documents. Non-EU Erasmus students who have a study visa or a residence permit for studies for another EU-country which is valid until the end of the planned exchange period, have to be registered by the University of Bremen at the "Bundesamt für Migration und Flüchtlinge" (BAMF) at least 30 days before the planned arrival date according to the REST guideline 2016/801. BAMF will issue a mobility pass for the duration of the study period in Bremen. Please note: If the residence title (study visa or residence permit for study purpose) expires before the end of the planned study period in Germany, a registration at the BAMF is not possible and students have to apply for a study visa instead (see above).
Registration of Residence	Registration of Residence (Meldebestätigung): All incoming students have to register with the city's authorities (BSU) within 2 weeks after taking residence in Bremen. Info: incoming@uni-bremen.de
Health insurance	Exchange students are required to have a valid health insurance that is equivalent to the German statutory health insurance, i.e. unlimited coverage of all treatments (incl. dental, psychological and pregnancy care) for the whole duration of their stay. EU-Nationals: European Health Insurance Card (EHIC) is accepted (English and French nationals should apply for EHIC as early as possible as it might take several weeks to obtain the EHIC card) Turkish Nationals: TA11 or TA9 form issued by SSK (Sosyal Sigortalar Kurumu) is also accepted. Non-EU Nationals should buy a German statutory health insurance (cost: 91,-€ per month) with one of the health insurance companies (AOK, TK) on campus. Applications can be made online from abroad. The certificate of health insurance has to be uploaded in MOIN. We recommend an additional travel insurance for the time gap between departure of the home country and the first day of the semester (1.10./1.4.) Foreign private health insurances for the purpose of visa applications are not accepted for the enrolment if they limit the coverage of cost or the duration of validity. Students will have to buy the statutory health insurance in addition to the foreign private health insurance. Info: incoming@uni-bremen.de
Housing	Website: https://www.uni-bremen.de/en/university/campus/housing.html Students have to notify our accommodation team if they wish to get assistance in finding accommodation by ticking the appropriate box in the online application form in Mobility Online. Contact: incoming@uni-bremen.de
Newcomer Service	The "Newcomer Service" for incoming students provides <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - orientation weeks and German intensive language courses 3 weeks before the start of lectures - special consultation hours of the Erasmus departmental coordinators during the orientation week - advice on all questions regarding arrival, registration, accommodation etc. by student tutors at a "Welcome Desk" - access to our online platform "Newcomer Portal" containing a timeline and many valuable information about living and studying in Bremen. Details will be circulated to all incoming Erasmus Students a few weeks before the start of the semester. (website of Newcomer Service see above in "Contacts International Office")
Language courses	There is an optional intensive German language course during the three orientation weeks organized by the Goethe Institute Bremen. Students will receive 6 ECTS upon successful participation (levels A1-B2). Admission only for registered Erasmus students who have participated in the online placement test sent by Goethe Institute approx. 3 weeks after the end of the online registration period. Students may take more German language courses during the semester. Placement test before start of lectures is obligatory for participation. Cost: 6 ECTS of German language teaching are free of charge for exchange students, any additional ECTS have to be paid for (80,- € for 3 ECTS),
Semester contribution	Students are required to pay a semester contribution (summer semester 2021: 329,24€) for the "Semesterticket", contribution to the "Studentenwerk" and to the Student Union ("AStA"). Exchange students from partner universities are exempted from the administration contribution, thus paying less than regular students.
Transportation	Upon payment of the "semester contribution" students will receive a "Semesterticket", so they can use all public transport in and around Bremen free of charge including regional trains to some cities close by. http://www.asta.uni-bremen.de/service/semesterticket/ (only valid from 1st of October to 31st of March resp. 1st April to 30th of September).
Sports facilities	Sports courses and facilities are available for incoming students on campus for a small administrative fee. http://www.hospo.uni-bremen.de/
