Bachelor and Master Studies

Grants for non-Spanish applicants from the Spanish Ministry of Education, Culture and Sport, need to meet the following requirements:

- In the case of European Union citizens or their family members, beneficiaries of the rights of free movement and residence, will be required to have the status of permanent residents, or be able to prove to be self-employed workers. These requirements shall not apply for the obtaining of tuition scholarship.
- In the event of non-EU foreigners, they will need to follow the provisions in the regulations on the rights and freedoms of foreigners in Spain and their social integration. Students older than 18 are required to be in possession of a residence permit in order to be able to apply for any type of aid (it is not enough the residence permit for study purposes).

Attracting Talent Scholarships of the University of Jaén

Type a) Total exemption of tuition fees + Grant.

These scholarships cover 100% of the tuition fees at the University of Jaén as well as an additional grant (up to €3,000 per year for Master studies and €2200 per year for Bachelor studies) for students wishing to study the whole Bachelor degree at the University of Jaén. These students should have a minimum GPA of 7.0 out of a scale of 10 points. The University of Jaén on an annual basis will publish bachelor's and master's degree programs eligible for this grant.

More information at: <http://www.ujaen.es/serv/vicint/home/index>

Type b) Partial exemption of tuition fees for online Master studies. These scholarships cover between 60% and 80% of tuition for foreign students. This would imply that a student would pay the same tuition fees that a Spanish student (from approximately €1,000 per year of 60 credits in the Master leading to a regulated profession, to approximately €2,150 for the rest of Masters). Students should have a minimum GPA of 7.5 out of a scale of 10 to obtain this grant.
