

Jacobs University is a private, state-accredited, English-language research university in Bremen. We offer PreDegree, Bachelor's, Master's and PhD programs in the Focus Areas Health, Mobility and Diversity and are committed to the professional development of specialists and managers and to knowledge transfer. Guiding principles include the highest standards in research and teaching, interculturality, and cross-disciplinary collaboration. The aim is to optimally prepare talented individuals from all over the world for responsible tasks in a globalized working world. Currently, approximately 1,500 young people from over 110 nations live and learn on campus.

The department School of Business, Social and Decision Sciences invites interested candidates to apply for the next possible date as a

Research Associate (PhD candidate) (m-f-d)

(Part-time; 28,87 hours/week; limited for 24 months)

Job ID 22~39

Your tasks:

The candidate will

- collaborate in various research projects and should support the team in writing grant applications and project proposals for the BMBF, EU etc.,
- support teaching activities
- do own research for PHD

Your profile:

The successful candidate will hold a Master's degree in Management, Information Management, Management Information Systems, Psychology or equivalent and must be fluent in English and German. Candidates should have relevant research experience of working at the interface of management and information systems; should be experienced in both quantitative, qualitative and design research methods; should have experience with scientific publications; and should have experience in writing project proposals. Experience in project management is an advantage.

Candidates should work and ideally have some research experiences in the area of information management, innovation management preferably with reference to collaboration and communication, design thinking and innovation methods as well as creativity.

We offer:

- The result counts: trust working hours for work-life balance
- Individual induction, promotion and development planning
- Free, extensive sports and health offers (currently under restrictions due to COVID 19)
- Qualitrain
- Green campus with recreation areas
- Jacobs University has extensive programs on sustainability, environmental sustainability, equal opportunities and high ethical values

If you are open-minded and enjoy a dynamic international working environment, and if you like to work in a highly motivated and friendly team, you are exactly right with us! You can expect an open corporate culture with flat hierarchies as well as interesting and challenging tasks. During your induction, you will be optimally prepared for your area of responsibility.

Your application:

Interested candidates are encouraged to submit a CV with a cover letter that includes a statement of research interests electronically to:

Prof. Dr. Christoph Lattemann
Jacobs University Bremen
c.lattemann@jacobs-university.de

The review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled.

Jacobs University offers full equality of opportunity to all qualified applications and is an equal opportunity employer.